

Dating Service - Acknowledgement and Addendum

Esquire Bank requires all merchants that fall within the parameters of Dating Services and Websites to understand and follow the limitations within the vertical as outlined by Card Brands and Esquire Bank.

- Merchant is required to have a program in place to protect all activity from human or sex trafficking, including established protocols to engage law enforcement in case suspicious activity is suspected or detected.
- Merchant is required to have controls in place to prevent any non-consensual participation.
- Merchant is required to have controls in place to prevent any participation on the platform from a minor.
- Merchant is required to obtain written or electronic consent from any and all participants on the platform.
- Merchant is required to retain evidence of consent and provide it to the bank as requested.
- Merchant is required to not advertise services that are illegal in nature.
- Merchant is required to review all website content before it is posted to ensure it is not illegal or otherwise in violation of the Card Brand standards or Esquire Bank Policy.

This document serves to acknowledge the receipt of the above dating merchant requirements. It is understood that this business relationship is based upon full compliance with the requirements of all Card Brand rules and regulations, as well as Esquire Bank's Merchant Services Agreement and Credit Underwriting and Merchant Policy.

The signature below, of an authorized officer of the business, acknowledges, accepts, and agrees to abide by the standards and requirements as outlined in the Merchant Agreement and Credit Underwriting and Merchant Policy.

This is to certify that _____ abides by all of the required practices listed above.

Merchant Name: _____

Authorized Signature: _____

Print Name: _____

Date: _____